5. Center Event Highlights (Discussion) (Liuokalani)

(Liu "Popo" Liuokalani, SECC Event Monitor)

Mr. Liuokalani reported the Pop-Up Village – hosted by KeSelah Crockett, Executive Director of Compass & Keys provided a number of resources for families centered around health & wellness. The Office of Community Investment and Infrastructure along with en2Action honored Bayview residents that have had a major impact in the District 10 Community. The event was titled Legacy Foundation Heroes and honored community members such as Linda Richardson, Aurelius Walker, and others. Another successful event held recently was the SFUSD Tech Symposium with over 300 attendees. Youth presented projects on their future career paths and many of them are considering work in the public sector. There was also a Job Fair hosted by Commissioner Mezie and the A. Philip Randolph Institute.

Mr. Liuokalani reported the Center has been fully activated

Questions and Comments from Commissioners and Community Committee Members:

Commissioners asked what schools participated in the Tech Symposium and what jobs generated the most interest.

- Staff advised it was a city-wide event and students were interested in working in the public sector.

6. 2nd Event Series Mental Health & Art Healing Circle:(Discussion)(Washington)

(Elise Washington, SECC Resident Partner Liaison)

Ms. Washington reported 33 applications had been received and a panel of Commissioners and community committee members would review the proposals. The majority of the applicants were providing programming for mental health. There were also 6 applications for art programming. Ms. Washington reported that once the applications were reviewed the information would be provided to the Advisory Committee as well as the full Commission for approval. She also acknowledged the work of Commissioner Mezie with the successful Job Fair for youth.

Questions and Comments from Commissioners and Community Committee Members:

Commissioner Posey commented that one of the individuals in attendance at the Job Fair was offered a job.

Public Comment: None.

7. Director's Report: (Pharr)

(Emily Pharr, SECC Executive Director)

Director Pharr reported Commissioner recruitment is ongoing. She requested assistance from Commissioners to help identify members of the community that might be interested in serving as a Commissioner or community committee member and invited them to forward resumes of individuals that might be interested.

The Director noted an incident at the Center where the fire alarms were triggered by someone smoking in the bathroom, however the facility was successfully evacuated.

9. Announcements:

Ms. Emily Wade-Thompson, community committee member announced the following:

- Lata SF Student Scholarship applications have closed, and the celebration will take place May 3rd at El Patio Espanol, tickets are $60.
- The scholarship applications for the San Francisco Alliance of Black School Educators is open until April 15 and the celebration will be at the African American Arts and Cultural Center on Fulton Street.
- The Filipino High School Senior Scholarship application is open until May 3rd and the celebration will be held on May 29th.
- The American Chinese Teachers Association has a scholarship, and that information will be provided when it is received.

Questions and Comments from Commissioners and Community Committee Members:

Commissioner Posey advised that he is working with Citizen Home Bridge to provide training to young people in the home-care field. There will be a 2-day training and he has created an initiative with the Bayview Senior Center to find out the type of help seniors need. He noted youth will be available to help seniors clean out their closets, provide support around their homes, and assist with shopping. The young people will receive a fair wage and the seniors will receive the support they need.

Commissioner Posey advised the trainings will take place at the Center with one in September and one on November.

Public Comment: None.
