

Community Garden Irrigation Meter Grant Program

Guidelines and Application

Services of the San Francisco Public Utilities Commission

Program Overview

The San Francisco Public Utilities Commission (SFPUC) Community Garden Irrigation Meter Grant Program (Grant Program) is designed to help urban agriculture, community, and demonstration gardens in San Francisco track and manage irrigation water use through the installation of a dedicated irrigation water service. Installation of a dedicated irrigation water service and meter helps property owners and tenants accurately track irrigation water use, reduce wastewater fees associated with indoor uses, and allows for a separate shutoff for the irrigation system if needed. Irrigation meters also allow owners or tenants to track their usage in relation to their calculated annual water budget established by the SFPUC. Without a dedicated irrigation meter, it is difficult to measure how much water is actually used for irrigation at a property.

Provision of grant funding is based on the eligibility of the proposed activity and availability of grant funds. A maximum of $12,000 in SFPUC fees will be waived per urban agriculture, community, or demonstration garden for the installation of a new dedicated irrigation water service. Installation of the new water service shall be performed by the SFPUC. In addition to the irrigation water service, projects may also receive a rebate up to $1,300 for costs associated with a properly installed backflow prevention device. Each grant application will be reviewed and evaluated on a first-come, first-serve basis until grant funds have been expended.

I. Grant Guidelines

Eligible Projects

The Grant Program is available to any institutional, residential, or commercial water user who needs retail water service to irrigate an urban agriculture, community, or demonstration garden. The garden to be watered (excluding any hardscapes and non-irrigable areas) must be at least 2,000 square feet or larger to be eligible for the Grant Program. Existing gardens with established plantings that require minimal watering and maintenance are not eligible for the Grant Program.

Applicants may include City departments, hospitals, schools, non-profits, community groups, neighborhood associations, developers, homeowners, landlords, or businesses. Proposed projects shall meet at least one of the criteria and all of the terms set forth below to qualify for the Grant Program. Projects that do not meet one or more of the criteria and all of the terms listed below will be deemed ineligible.

Grant Criteria

Projects must meet at least one of the following criteria to be eligible:

- An urban agriculture project with proof of receiving, or intent to receive, a change-of-use permit from the San Francisco Planning Department per the Urban Agriculture Ordinance approving their status as an urban agriculture site;
- A small scale urban market garden designed and operated for urban food production;
- A community garden sponsored by the San Francisco Recreation and Parks Department with a signed Community Garden Plot Agreement; or
- A garden established for demonstration or other instructional programming purposes.

Grant Terms

Projects must meet all of the following terms to be eligible:

- A complete Grant Application, supporting documentation, and a W-9 IRS tax form shall be submitted to the SFPUC to be determined a complete application.
- The Grantee or the designated person or organization listed on the Grant Application must establish a new water service account with the SFPUC and continually pay its own water bills.
- The Grantee is limited to one irrigation water service connection per site.
- Projects must remain well-maintained and in place for a minimum of 10 years.
- The Grantee will not receive monetary funds from the SFPUC for the installation of the new water service (the SFPUC will waive the installation fees).
- A maximum of $12,000 in waived installation fees alone will be awarded to a Grantee. Any costs exceeding $12,000 shall be paid by the Grantee.
- The Grantee may also apply to receive a rebate from the SFPUC up to $1,300 for costs associated with permitting and installing the required backflow prevention device. The Grantee shall submit required documentation to the SFPUC to be eligible for the rebate. The rebate is payable only after the Grantee receives a permit from the Department of Building Inspection - Plumbing Inspection Division and approval from SFPUC Water Quality Cross Connection Division for a properly installed backflow prevention device.
- The proposed activity shall meet all applicable local, state and federal laws, regulations and ordinances, including environmental review and backflow prevention requirements.
- Water service provided through the Grant Program is for garden irrigation only. Sites are subject to unscheduled post-installation inspection by SFPUC staff. Grantees found to be using the water service for indoor or non-irrigation purposes are subject to paying the SFPUC in full for the cost of meter, installation, and any rebate funding.

Funding Rules

- An award for a new dedicated irrigation water service shall be based on 1) the evaluation of each application on a first-come, first-serve basis, and 2) the availability of funds, as certified by the Controller of the City and County of San Francisco.
- A grant approval letter will be issued to the Grantee notifying them of their award for a new irrigation water service. Grant funds will not be issued to the Grantee for installation of the irrigation water service. The grant covers up to $12,000 in SFPUC's fees for installing one new water service connection and meter per site.
- Water usage will be monitored monthly and a report will be provided. Any sites violating the grant terms are subject to repayment of the waived installation fees, up to $12,000.
- If the fees associated with installation of the irrigation water service exceed $12,000, the Grantee shall provide payment to the SFPUC for the difference.
- Grantees shall visit the SFPUC's New Service Installation Division at 525 Golden Gate Avenue, 2nd Floor in person within 60 days of the grant approval letter to initiate the installation process. Grantees who fail to visit New Service Installations will not receive a water service installation and their award may be revoked.
- Grantees may also apply for a $1,300 rebate from the SFPUC for the proper installation of a backflow prevention device. The following backflow expenses are eligible for the rebate:

Eligible Rebate Expenses	Required Documentation	Maximum Rebate
Backflow prevention device	Original sales receipt for purchase of the backflow device	$300
Installation of the backflow prevention device	Original invoice and proof of payment from a plumber identifying the installation cost for the backflow prevention device	$700
Certification of the new backflow device	Original invoice and proof of payment from a certified backflow prevention assembly tester	$100
Plumbing permit fee	Copy of permit and proof of payment to Department of Building Inspection	$200

- The required annual certification and testing of the backflow device is not eligible for the rebate.

Backflow Prevention

An approved backflow prevention device is required for all irrigation water service connections. A backflow prevention device is used to protect the City's water distribution system from any potential contamination. Under normal conditions, water from the City's distribution system flows into a customer's property. When backflow occurs (often from a drop in water pressure caused by a water main break or firefighting episode), water can flow from the customer's property back into the distribution system bringing any potential contaminants into the main water supply.

It is the responsibility of the Grantee to properly install a backflow prevention device for the irrigation water service. The costs of the backflow prevention device and installation fees are eligible for a rebate from the SFPUC. The Grantee must submit proper documentation identified in the Funding Rules to receive the rebate. For a list of approved backflow prevention devices and certified testers, contact the SFPUC Water Quality Cross Connection Division at (650) 652-3199. For more information on backflow prevention requirements, please contact the SFPUC Water Quality Cross Connection Division at (650) 652-3199 or visit www.sfwater.org/index.aspx?page=163.

Permits and Inspections

All activities must comply with applicable local, state and federal permit requirements. A plumbing permit from the San Francisco Department of Building Inspection is required to install the approved backflow prevention device. The permit cost is eligible for a rebate from the SFPUC. The Grantee must submit proper documentation identified in the Funding Rules to receive the rebate. Installation of the irrigation water service will not be awarded until a permit is issued. Sites awarded a grant are subject to an unscheduled post-inspection by SFPUC staff.

II. Grant Evaluation and Process

Applications must meet the eligibility criteria and grant terms. Applications will be reviewed on a pass/fail basis against these eligibility criteria. Applications that meet all of the eligibility criteria and grant terms are further subject to the availability of funds, which is based on certification by the Controller of the City and County of San Francisco.

If your project is selected and you have received an approval letter from the SFPUC, you must visit SFPUC New Installations in person within 60 days to complete an application for a new service connection and to establish a customer of record for billing purposes. New Service Installations is located at the SFPUC headquarters at 525 Golden Gate Avenue, 2nd floor and is open weekdays between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. For questions, please call (415) 551-2900. Grantees who fail to visit New Service Installations within 60 days of receipt of their grant award letter are subject to losing their award.

III. Grant Application

Applications for the Community Garden Irrigation Meter Grant Program will be accepted until funding has been expended and on a first-come, first-serve basis. Completed and signed applications with all supporting documentation can be emailed to landscape@sfwater.org or mailed to:

- Where:
- 35.1 = ETo or Reference Evapotranspiration for San Francisco (inches per year)
  - 0.62 = Conversion Factor (to gallons)
  - 0.7 = ET Adjustment Factor (ETAF)
  - LA = Landscape Area including SLA (square feet)
  - 0.3 = Additional Water Allowance for SLA
  - SLA = Special Landscape Area (square feet) includes edible plants, areas irrigated with rainwater or graywater, water features using only rainwater, and areas dedicated to active play such as parks

To help you monitor irrigation use, each month the SFPUC will provide your designated irrigation manager with an electronic report that compares your site’s monthly water budget to the metered irrigation water use.

Future developments. For the latest information about developments related to Form W-9 and its instructions, such as legislation enacted after they were published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW9.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following.

- Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)

- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
- Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
- Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
- Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)
- Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)
- Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
- Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding, later.

By signing the filled-out form, you:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income, and
4. Certify that FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that you are exempt from the FATCA reporting, is correct. See What is FATCA reporting, later, for further information.

Note: If you are a U.S. person and a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien;
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States;
- An estate (other than a foreign estate); or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax under section 1446 on any foreign partners' share of effectively connected taxable income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, the rules under section 1446 require a partnership to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the section 1446 withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid section 1446 withholding on your share of partnership income.

In the cases below, the following person must give Form W-9 to the partnership for purposes of establishing its U.S. status and avoiding withholding on its allocable share of net income from the partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States.

- In the case of a disregarded entity with a U.S. owner, the U.S. owner of the disregarded entity and not the entity;
- In the case of a grantor trust with a U.S. grantor or other U.S. owner, generally, the U.S. grantor or other U.S. owner of the grantor trust and not the trust; and
- In the case of a U.S. trust (other than a grantor trust), the U.S. trust (other than a grantor trust) and not the beneficiaries of the trust.

Foreign person. If you are a foreign person or the U.S. branch of a foreign bank that has elected to be treated as a U.S. person, do not use Form W-9. Instead, use the appropriate Form W-8 or Form 8233 (see Pub. 515, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Entities).

Nonresident alien who becomes a resident alien. Generally, only a nonresident alien individual may use the terms of a tax treaty to reduce or eliminate U.S. tax on certain types of income. However, most tax treaties contain a provision known as a "saving clause." Exceptions specified in the saving clause may permit an exemption from tax to continue for certain types of income even after the payee has otherwise become a U.S. resident alien for tax purposes.

If you are a U.S. resident alien who is relying on an exception contained in the saving clause of a tax treaty to claim an exemption from U.S. tax on certain types of income, you must attach a statement to Form W-9 that specifies the following five items.

1. The treaty country. Generally, this must be the same treaty under which you claimed exemption from tax as a nonresident alien.
2. The treaty article addressing the income.
3. The article number (or location) in the tax treaty that contains the saving clause and its exceptions.
4. The type and amount of income that qualifies for the exemption from tax.
5. Sufficient facts to justify the exemption from tax under the terms of the treaty article.

Example. Article 20 of the U.S.-China income tax treaty allows an exemption from tax for scholarship income received by a Chinese student temporarily present in the United States. Under U.S. law, this student will become a resident alien for tax purposes if his or her stay in the United States exceeds 5 calendar years. However, paragraph 2 of the first Protocol to the U.S.-China treaty (dated April 30, 1984) allows the provisions of Article 20 to continue to apply even after the Chinese student becomes a resident alien of the United States. A Chinese student who qualifies for this exception (under paragraph 2 of the first protocol) and is relying on this exception to claim an exemption from tax on his or her scholarship or fellowship income would attach to Form W-9 a statement that includes the information described above to support that exemption.

If you are a nonresident alien or a foreign entity, give the requester the appropriate completed Form W-8 or Form 8233.

Backup Withholding

What is backup withholding? Persons making certain payments to you must under certain conditions withhold and pay to the IRS 24% of such payments. This is called "backup withholding." Payments that may be subject to backup withholding include interest, tax-exempt interest, dividends, broker and barter exchange transactions, rents, royalties, nonemployee pay, payments made in settlement of payment card and third party network transactions, and certain payments from fishing boat operators. Real estate transactions are not subject to backup withholding.

You will not be subject to backup withholding on payments you receive if you give the requester your correct TIN, make the proper certifications, and report all your taxable interest and dividends on your tax return.

Payments you receive will be subject to backup withholding if:

1. You do not furnish your TIN to the requester,
2. You do not certify your TIN when required (see the instructions for Part II for details),
3. The IRS tells the requester that you furnished an incorrect TIN,
4. The IRS tells you that you are subject to backup withholding because you did not report all your interest and dividends on your tax return (for reportable interest and dividends only), or
5. You do not certify to the requester that you are not subject to backup withholding under 4 above (for reportable interest and dividend accounts opened after 1983 only).

Certain payees and payments are exempt from backup withholding. See Exempt payee code, later, and the separate Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9 for more information.

Also see Special rules for partnerships, earlier.

What is FATCA Reporting?

The Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (FATCA) requires a participating foreign financial institution to report all United States account holders that are specified United States persons. Certain payees are exempt from FATCA reporting. See Exemption from FATCA reporting code, later, and the Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9 for more information.

Updating Your Information

You must provide updated information to any person to whom you claimed to be an exempt payee if you are no longer an exempt payee and anticipate receiving reportable payments in the future from this person. For example, you may need to provide updated information if you are a C corporation that elects to be an S corporation, or if you no longer are tax exempt. In addition, you must furnish a new Form W-9 if the name or TIN changes for the account; for example, if the grantor of a grantor trust dies.

Penalties

Failure to furnish TIN. If you fail to furnish your correct TIN to a requester, you are subject to a penalty of $50 for each such failure unless your failure is due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect.

Civil penalty for false information with respect to withholding. If you make a false statement with no reasonable basis that results in no backup withholding, you are subject to a $500 penalty.

Criminal penalty for falsifying information. Willfully falsifying certifications or affirmations may subject you to criminal penalties including fines and/or imprisonment.

Misuse of TINs. If the requester discloses or uses TINs in violation of federal law, the requester may be subject to civil and criminal penalties.

Specific Instructions

Line 1

You must enter one of the following on this line; do not leave this line blank. The name should match the name on your tax return.

If this Form W-9 is for a joint account (other than an account maintained by a foreign financial institution (FFI)), list first, and then circle, the name of the person or entity whose number you entered in Part I of Form W-9. If you are providing Form W-9 to an FFI to document a joint account, each holder of the account that is a U.S. person must provide a Form W-9.

a. Individual. Generally, enter the name shown on your tax return. If you have changed your last name without informing the Social Security Administration (SSA) of the name change, enter your first name, the last name as shown on your social security card, and your new last name.

Note: ITIN applicant: Enter your individual name as it was entered on your Form W-7 application, line 1a. This should also be the same as the name you entered on the Form 1040/1040A/1040EZ you filed with your application.

b. Sole proprietor or single-member LLC. Enter your individual name as shown on your 1040/1040A/1040EZ on line 1. You may enter your business, trade, or "doing business as" (DBA) name on line 2.

See Regulations section 301.7701-2(c)(2)(iii). Enter the owner's name on line 1. The name of the entity entered on line 1 should never be a disregarded entity. The name on line 1 should be the name shown on the income tax return on which the income should be reported. For example, if a foreign LLC that is treated as a disregarded entity for U.S. federal tax purposes has a single owner that is a U.S. person, the U.S. owner's name is required to be provided on line 1. If the direct owner of the entity is also a disregarded entity, enter the first owner that is not disregarded for federal tax purposes. Enter the disregarded entity's name on line 2, "Business name/disregarded entity name." If the owner of the disregarded entity is a foreign person, the owner must complete an appropriate Form W-8 instead of a Form W-9. This is the case even if the foreign person has a U.S. TIN.

Line 2

If you have a business name, trade name, DBA name, or disregarded entity name, you may enter it on line 2.

Line 5

Enter your address (number, street, and apartment or suite number). This is where the requester of this Form W-9 will mail your information returns. If this address differs from the one the requester already has on file, write NEW at the top. If a new address is provided, there is still a chance the old address will be used until the payor changes your address in their records.

Line 6

Enter your city, state, and ZIP code.

Part I. Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. If you are a resident alien and you do not have and are not eligible to get an SSN, your TIN is your IRS individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN). Enter it in the social security number box. If you do not have an ITIN, see How to get a TIN below.

If you are a sole proprietor and you have an EIN, you may enter either your SSN or EIN.

If you are a single-member LLC that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner, enter the owner's SSN (or EIN, if the owner has one). Do not enter the disregarded entity's EIN. If the LLC is classified as a corporation or partnership, enter the entity's EIN.

Note: See What Name and Number To Give the Requester, later, for further clarification of name and TIN combinations.

How to get a TIN. If you do not have a TIN, apply for one immediately. To apply for an SSN, get Form SS-5, Application for a Social Security Card, from your local SSA office or get this form online at www.SSA.gov. You may also get this form by calling 1-800-772-1213. Use Form W-7, Application for IRS Individual Taxpayer Identification Number, to apply for an ITIN, or Form SS-4, Application for Employer Identification Number, to apply for an EIN. You can apply for an EIN online by accessing the IRS website at www.irs.gov/Businesses and clicking on Employer Identification Number (EIN) under Starting a Business. Go to www.irs.gov/Forms to view, download, or print Form W-7 and/or Form SS-4. Or, you can go to www.irs.gov/OrderForms to place an order and have Form W-7 and/or SS-4 mailed to you within 10 business days.

If you are asked to complete Form W-9 but do not have a TIN, apply for a TIN and write "Applied For" in the space for the TIN, sign and date the form, and give it to the requester. For interest and dividend payments, and certain payments made with respect to readily tradable instruments, generally you will have 60 days to get a TIN and give it to the requester before you are subject to backup withholding on payments. The 60-day rule does not apply to other types of payments. You will be subject to backup withholding on all such payments until you provide your TIN to the requester.

Note: Entering "Applied For" means that you have already applied for a TIN or that you intend to apply for one soon.

Caution: A disregarded U.S. entity that has a foreign owner must use the appropriate Form W-8.

Part II. Certification

To establish to the withholding agent that you are a U.S. person, or resident alien, sign Form W-9. You may be requested to sign by the withholding agent even if item 1, 4, or 5 below indicates otherwise.

For a joint account, only the person whose TIN is shown in Part I should sign (when required). In the case of a disregarded entity, the person identified on line 1 must sign. Exempt payees, see Exempt payee code, earlier.

Signature requirements. Complete the certification as indicated in items 1 through 5 below.

1. Interest, dividend, and barter exchange accounts opened before 1984 and broker accounts considered active during 1983.

You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

2. Interest, dividend, broker, and barter exchange accounts opened after 1983 and broker accounts considered inactive during 1983.

You must sign the certification or backup withholding will apply. If you are subject to backup withholding and you are merely providing your correct TIN to the requester, you must cross out item 2 in the certification before signing the form.

3. Real estate transactions. You must sign the certification. You may cross out item 2 of the certification.

4. Other payments. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification unless you have been notified that you have previously given an incorrect TIN. "Other payments" include payments made in the course of the requester's trade or business for rents, royalties, goods (other than bills for merchandise), medical and health care services (including payments to corporations), payments to a nonemployee for services, payments made in settlement of payment card and third party network transactions, payments to certain fishing boat crew members and fishermen, and gross proceeds paid to attorneys (including payments to corporations).

5. Mortgage interest paid by you, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, qualified tuition program payments (under section 529), ABLE accounts (under section 529A), IRA, Coverdell ESA, Archer MSA or HSA contributions or distributions, and pension distributions. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

Secure Your Tax Records From Identity Theft

Identity theft occurs when someone uses your personal information such as your name, SSN, or other identifying information, without your permission, to commit fraud or other crimes. An identity thief may use your SSN to get a job or may file a tax return using your SSN to receive a refund.

To reduce your risk:

- Protect your SSN,
- Ensure your employer is protecting your SSN, and
- Be careful when choosing a tax preparer.

If your tax records are affected by identity theft and you receive a notice from the IRS, respond right away to the name and phone number printed on the IRS notice or letter.

If your tax records are not currently affected by identity theft but you think you are at risk due to a lost or stolen purse or wallet, questionable credit card activity or credit report, contact the IRS Identity Theft Hotline at 1-800-908-4490 or submit Form 14039.

For more information, see Pub. 5027, Identity Theft Information for Taxpayers.

Victims of identity theft who are experiencing economic harm or a systemic problem, or are seeking help in resolving tax problems that have not been resolved through normal channels, may be eligible for Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS) assistance. You can reach TAS by calling the TAS toll-free case intake line at 1-877-777-4778 or TTY/TDD 1-800-829-4059.

Protect yourself from suspicious emails or phishing schemes.

Phishing is the creation and use of email and websites designed to mimic legitimate business emails and websites. The most common act is sending an email to a user falsely claiming to be an established legitimate enterprise in an attempt to scam the user into surrendering private information that will be used for identity theft.

The IRS does not initiate contacts with taxpayers via emails. Also, the IRS does not request personal detailed information through email or ask taxpayers for the PIN numbers, passwords, or similar secret access information for their credit card, bank, or other financial accounts.

If you receive an unsolicited email claiming to be from the IRS, forward this message to phishing@irs.gov. You may also report misuse of the IRS name, logo, or other IRS property to the Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration (TIGTA) at 1-800-366-4484. You can forward suspicious emails to the Federal Trade Commission at spam@uce.gov or report them at www.ftc.gov/complaint. You can contact the FTC at www.ftc.gov/idtheft or 877-IDTHEFT (877-438-4338). If you have been the victim of identity theft, see www.IdentityTheft.gov and Pub. 5027.

The person collecting this form uses the information on the form to file information returns with the IRS, reporting the above information. Routine uses of this information include giving it to the Department of Justice for civil and criminal litigation and to cities, states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. commonwealths and possessions for use in administering their laws.
